A Primitive Hawaiian Home

LL 2515

TUCK'S POST CARD

CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

By Appointment.

A Primitive Hawaiian Home. Very few of the primitive Hawaiian homes are still extant. They were but grass huts, situated on the mountain side, amid picturesque, tropical surroundings, and are now replaced by frame cottages. The native has few wants beyond his simple food and clothing and may still be found engaged in the ancient method of pounding or pulverizing grains or seeds of some kind.
